

CHATHAM CHATTER

News from Joy:

Wow! What a great job you all did for the quilt show. I am so proud to be a part of Chatham. Now, that is behind us we can get ready for some fun.

We have a great opportunity for us to get that Charity quilt done for the year, and learn a new technique with the flip and sew class.

It is Spring Cleaning time and we have two opportunities to get that stuff cleaned out. Chatham Garage sale is 2/22/11, and then the Guild's is in March. Get cleaning!

GUILD MEETINGS

From: Janet Gardner

March 1st - Garage Sale - Items for sale can include patterns, books, fabric, kits, sewing notions, UFOs, leftover items from the Boutique, cross stitch, or any other sewing/fabric items. Members price their items and be present to sell them; Be there by 6:30 to set up. Hosting chapter is Friendship Star.

We need to find out how many members of our chapters plan to participate in the sale, so that an appropriate number of tables can be provided. We also need to get input from our members about any likes or dislikes from the last sale.

April 5th - David Taylor's lecture. Hosting chapter is Lake Miona

May 3rd - Lisa-Marie Saunders - Quilting With Aliens - Book & Lecture. Hosting chapter is Chatham

June 7th - Joy Dudis' Home Decorating (humorous) Lecture & Her Grandmother's Quilts. Hosting chapter is Allamanda.
