President's Message

April Leftovers

We discussed and revised our bereavement policy. In the future we will give a $25.00 gift to the charity designated for a member or spouse only. We also voted not to furnish food for the families. We voted not to enter items into the quilt show boutique as a chapter with the proceeds going to the chapter. If someone wants to enter personal items those participating will choose a representative to handle tags and drop-off/pick-up of items at the show.

May-A lot of the seasonal members left at different times this month making the group smaller. If you want to demo or teach a work shop when you return please let Beth know so she can add it to her schedule. Beautiful fabric/roping bowls were made. It was interesting to see the change in the fabric as it was twisted around the rope & sewn together. I didn't make one because I thought it would be difficult but after watching it was easier than I expected.

The evening guild meetings have been cancelled for June, July and August. Check Joyce Doig's info about the September meeting. We have a lot going on in June (check below) and we are looking forward to the shop trip dee & Helen are planning for June 29. We have several interesting projects coming up for the summer and fall; check the following pages. Where would we be without our committee members? Thank you all.

QUILTING Lil

Okay, okay I'll admit it, I'm a material girl. Nothing I like more than going to a good fabric store on a "feel" trip. All sorts of fabric make me happy, cotton, linen, flax, wool, tapestry, moire, chintz, lace, and on and on. I've heard that the Eskimos have twenty or so different words for snow in order to relate the properties of the precipitation. The correct description can be a life or death situation. While so many fabric descriptions aren't usually that critical, it's telling that we have so many words to differentiate the "fabric of our lives". (If the cotton industry happens to read this newsletter please think of the use of that phrase as more of a compliment than plagiarism.) What sewing gal or guy can't immediately conjure up a mental or tactile image when one is talking of merino, cashmere, alpaca or plain old Baa-Baa sheep wools? How about the cotton categories? Pima, broadcloth, muslin, calico, corduroy, velveteen, eyelet, lawn, batiste are instantly recognizable to our mind's eye and we revel in them all! So move over, Madonna, there is no Material Girl like a quilter or sewer.

Keep sewing, my Stitchin' Sistahs!

Quilt Retreat at Lake Yale -dee Burns, Mary Ann Caggiano, Beth Dombek

Dear fellow quilters:

Although February 2011 seems a long way off, we have started making plans for our next Lake Miona Quilters' Retreat. The contract with the Lake Yale Conference Center has been signed and the deposit monies have been paid. The dates are February 8th—10th, 2011.

If you plan to attend we will need your $50 deposit no later than Tuesday, July 6th 2010. Please submit your checks made payable to Lake Miona Quilters to Dee Burns. The processing of monies to Lake Yale Conference Center will be through our club checking account.

We hope you plan to attend—put the dates on your calendars and submit your checks. The workroom holds no more than 33 people and the first 33 to submit their deposit monies will be assured a table in that workroom. Anyone signing up after that room is full will be situated in a smaller, equally comfortable room.

—we look forward to having a great time with great quilting friends!

Board minutes for May 2010

Highlights of the Executive board meeting for May 19.

From new VP and program director Carolyn Heald:

- 1) David Taylor has been sent a contract for a presentation on pointless hand applique for April, 2011. he will be able to accommodate up to forty in the class.
- 2) The committee is working on a new system for obtaining and distributing class tickets.
- 3) There will be demonstrations by four people for the October meeting.
- 4) Joyce Grace from Laurel Manor will do a trunk show in September.
- 5) Class size will be at the discretion of the teacher as long as there are funds for lower class attendance.

There will be no June picnic due to lack of interest..

Quilt show committee reports that plans are moving smoothly.

The standing rules that were amended in previous meetings have been put into print, amended again, voted on and now approved. These concern the roles of the hostess and teacher and chapter members acting as paid teachers in off-Villages sites (presently the Methodist Church).

The Mulberry Chapter is having a bus trip to Rockledge for a shop hop and they have a few empty seats. If interested, call Robin Patterson at 205-8464.

Hotel sheets are being donated to our guild. It was suggested that they will be suitable for quilt backing as they are reported to be of high quality cotton. Each chapter will receive about ten to aid in their charity work supplies.

It was moved, voted and passed that there will be neither guild meetings nor executive board meetings for the months of June, July or August. This eliminates the need to replace my presence and reports.

You can all breathe a sigh of relief.

Wishing everyone a safe and happy summer. Get going on those Christmas stockings, ladies and Ed!

Respectfully submitted,

Donna Kudner

Showcase: Carol Goldman and Sue Kriek

Thanks to Mary Murray and Mary Loux for the showcase for May. Carol Goldman will be doing June. We could use some more help for the fall months. Please see me at the meetings on Tuesdays.

Tips By Robin -Here are the tips for June

Only two tips this month and both are reprints from the magazine All People Quilt, April 2009 issue.

1. Wash and iron all quilt fabrics one day, and cut all the pieces in one sitting. That way you can sew without interruptions, (Dorothy Brunette, Falmouth, Maine)

2. When flipping through a magazine, mark favorite projects with a sticky note so they are easy to find later. (Lynn Schodtler, Winder, Georgia)
