

President Barbara Morse declared the business meeting open at 9:00 AM. Following the pledge of allegiance and the introduction of guests, refreshments were enjoyed.

The minutes and the treasurer's report of January 28 were both accepted for filing.

Committee reports:

Membership: Ginger Cullen reports that the directory is coming soon.

Program: Cindy Work says that Mulberry is in charge of guild hospitality for April. There is a sign up sheet for 18 members to help.

Showcase 2015: Carol Knoll reports that the Guild's website contains all the rules. (QGOTV.org) Deadline for application and photo is October 1. Silent auction items should have a label. Enter your name today with Cindy Work for the drawing of one person to assist on judging days. Challenge quilt entries are $5.00, available at the guild meeting. The vendors will supply the Chinese auction baskets. The boutique would like a contribution from each chapter.

Guild Programs: Pat Wallace reminded us that we will host the teacher for the April 1 class. Ann Moroz volunteered. Cindy Miller is the teacher. We will have three tables at the guild's garage sale on March 18. Donna Blodgett will attend the next meeting for Pat.

Guild Board: Marge Jensen reported that the treasurer's report will be sent to each chapter president as well as the membership roster. It must not be used for solicitations and any one who does will be ousted from the guild. Pillowcases are due next Tuesday. Lake Miona has made 250. The size of quilts for Hospice is 54"x72". (She has brought one today which she made and will take there.) Chapter treasurers will meet March 14 to prepare the new budget.

Blotto: Carol Sheperd needs a volunteer for August and Rose Luehrsen offered.

Charity Quilts: Donna Blodgett said that next week we start the Streak of Lightning quilt. We have batting. Everyone bring 1/4 yard of fabric.

Old Business

Mary Ann Pankowski has one opening for the March retreat. The ugly fabric projects are due and will be voted upon on March 11.

Mystery Quilt: Carol LaFleur says it is a six month project to be shared in February 2015.

Barbara Morse reviewed the 55 survey responses she received.

New Business

Raffle tickets will be received from the guild by Carol Knoll.. We each have the option to buy, sell, or return them. They are $5.00 for 6 tickets.

If you can assist the Villages Elementary School volunteers with supplies such as felt, ribbon, buttons, yarn, costume jewelry, etc. please contact Alice Nichols.

2015 Quilt Show Steering committee: Dale Angione will take any concerns or suggestions to the next meeting.

The new blotto is offered by Judy Galusha

Marketplace made $11,000+

On March 11, at our meeting, Barbara Robinson will share the story of her antique quilt.

Fat Quarters were won by Carol Sheperd, Diane Robbins, Robyn Patterson

Blotto was won by Carol Sheperd

There followed a display of lovely quilts for show and tell.

Respectfully submitted,
